

SCHOOL OF NURSING AND MIDWIFERY, ROBERT GORDON UNIVERSITY

RESEARCH SEMINARS – Garthdee Campus. Aberdeen

Monday 16TH January 4-5pm, N204 Sir Ian Wood Building

Dr Anne Marie Rennie, Infant Feeding Coordinator, NHS Grampian

Psychological Wellbeing Following Miscarriage from a Salutogenic Perspective

Monday 6th February, 4-5pm, H230 FOHSC

Dr Heather Bain, Senior Lecturer Postgraduate and CPD Education,
School of Nursing and Midwifery, RGU

The development of unique knowing in district nursing practice

Monday 13th March, 4-5pm N204 Sir Ian Wood Building

Dr Sonya MacVicar, Lecturer/researcher, Edinburgh Napier University

Breastfeeding Support in Substance Dependence

Tuesday April 25th, 4-5pm, H230 FOHSC

Dr Lee Boag

Improving the health and wellbeing of informal caregivers of people with bipolar disorder

Tuesday 23rd May 4-5pm, H230 FOHSC

Dr Sara Denham, Midwife, NHS Grampian

Quality in the Community? A Case Study exploration of approaches to safe, effective and person centred care in two Scottish rural community maternity units

Monday 19th June, 4-5pm, N204 Sir Ian Wood Building

Dr Elaine Allan, Lead Nurse for School Nursing, Aberdeen City HSCP

Title: TBC

ALL STAFF, STUDENTS AND CLINICAL COLLEAGUES WELCOME

To book a place, please contact Heather Nicolson h.nicolson@rgu.ac.uk